The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless —

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 10-12 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ikenaga et al.

Ikenaga et al disclose thermoplastics treated with antistatic agents as claimed instantly and in amounts such as claimed instantly (see table 2).

Claims 14 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Browning.

Browning discloses polymeric articles with antistatic properties arising from the addition of alkanolamine esters such as claimed in formula 1. Therefore the reference anticipates the rejected claims.

Claim 13 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 15 and 16 are allowed.
